2.10.3.3. Right to Demit or Transfer Certificate. A member of a subordinate Chapter against whom charges are not pending in either Chapter or Symbolic Lodge and who is not indebted to the Chapter, shall be entitled to a demit upon application therefore, the vote then to be taken by a show of hands. In the event of a failure on the part of his Chapter to hold a Convocation for three months the High Priest shall order the demit issued to him, upon a Certificate from the Secretary that he is entitled to it under the provisions of this regulation. Provided further, if a Companion wishes to move his membership from one Chapter to another in Georgia he may request a demit. Upon receipt of the demit, attach a petition for affiliation and submit it to any Chapter of his choice. If there is less than ninety (90) days lapse between the time a demit was issued and the date of election by affiliation in the new Chapter there shall be no loss of time. Provided further, if a Companion, against whom no charges are pending and who is otherwise in good standing with current dues paid, desires to transfer his membership to or affiliate with another Chapter without taking a demit, he shall be entitled to a Certificate of Good Standing upon application therefore, the vote as for a demit. In the event of a failure on the part of his Chapter to hold a Convocation for three months or in the event the vote does not grant the Certificate and no charges are preferred against the Companion by the end of the next regular Convocation, the High Priest shall order the Certificate of Good Standing issued to him. The Companion may then attach such certificate to a petition for affiliation and submit it to any Chapter with which he desires to affiliate, and if his petition is granted, the Secretary of the affiliating Chapter shall notify the Secretary of the Chapter that issued the Certificate and the Grand Secretary of the affiliation and whether the affiliation is a transfer of membership or for membership in more than one Chapter.

2.10.3.4. Non-Affiliate May Apply to Any Chartered Chapter.

A subordinate Chapter may affiliate any regular Royal Arch Mason in good standing who is a member of some Symbolic Lodge of this jurisdiction, or of any other lodge with which the Grand Lodge of Georgia holds fraternal relations, against whom no charges are pending, either in any Chapter or Symbolic Lodge having jurisdiction.

2.10.3.5. Visitation Limited. An unaffiliated Royal Arch Mason residing in Georgia, shall not be allowed to visit any Chapter in this Grand Jurisdiction more than three times.

2.10.4. Elections.

2.10.4.1. Election, When. Election of officers in all chartered subordinate Chapters shall take place annually at the regular Convocation on or next preceding the Festival of St. John the Evangelist. Such elections shall be held in open Chapter, in the Royal Arch Degree, a majority of the votes cast being necessary to election.

2.10.4.2. Postponement of Election. If, from unavoidable circumstances, such an election is prevented, it may take place at a subsequent Convocation, regular or called, for the purpose of which due notice must be given and for which Dispensation must be had.

2.10.4.3. Installation of Officers. The officers-elect, all of whom must be members of such Chapter, shall be installed as soon after the election as convenient, by some Past or Present High Priest of that or some other Chapter; and the Secretaries of the subordinate Chapters shall furnish to the Grand Secretary the names of the Officers elected within ten days thereafter.

2.10.5. Dues to Constituent Chapters.

2.10.5.1. Remission of Dues. Subordinate Chapters may remit the dues of worthy members who are not able to pay, and they will not be liable to the Grand Chapter for per capita tax on such members. The fact that a Companion is a Life Member or a Minister of the Gospel does not relieve the Chapter to which he belongs from his Annual Dues to the Grand Chapter, notwithstanding the Chapter may enact a By-law or pass a resolution relieving such members from dues to subordinate Chapter to which they belong, and this applies to Sentinels, Treasurers, Secretaries, Chaplains, et al. Each Secretary of a subordinate Chapter in his returns should set out specifically the reason why dues of its members are remitted.

2.10.5.2. Suspension for Non-Payment. A companion in arrears for dues for two years may be suspended, after due notice, without trial. If said dues together with fee for restoration are paid within twelve (12) months from such suspension, he shall be reinstated automatically; if more than twelve (12) months elapse before payment of arrearages, the reinstatement must be by petition and unanimous ballot.

2.10.5.3. Emeritus Members. A Companion having been a contributing member for fifty (50) years, or reached the age of seventy-five (75) years and having been for twenty-five (25) years a contributing member may upon request be granted Emeritus Membership, and the Chapter to which he belongs shall not be required to pay per capita tax thereon. Provided, however, an affiliated Companion coming from another Grand Jurisdiction who may be otherwise entitled to emeritus status, shall not be eligible for emeritus status in this Grand Jurisdiction until he shall have been a dues paying member in a constituent Chapter in Georgia for not less than five (5) years, regardless of his age at the time of affiliation. Effective July 1, 2013 Emeritus membership was discontinued. Those members holding emeritus membership will continue to hold Emeritus Membership Status and will continue to be exempt from Per Capita Tax.

2.10.5.4. Dues Payable on January 1. The dues of Constituent Chapters are payable on January 1 of each year, in advance.

2.10.5.5. Perpetual Membership. Provided similar action is approved by the Grand Council of Georgia, Royal and Select Masters and the Grand Commandery of Georgia, Knights Templar, this Grand Chapter does hereby authorize the creation and the joint operation of a Perpetual Membership Program under the name and style of the York Rite Perpetual Membership Fund of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Georgia. This Fund shall be administered by a joint committee of the said three Grand Bodies which committee shall be known as the Fund Committee.

The Most Excellent Grand High Priest shall appoint one companion for a term of one year, another companion for two years, and another companion for three years who shall serve on the joint Fund Committee. Annually thereafter the incoming Most Excellent Grand High Priest shall NOMINATE one companion for a three year term, who shall be ELECTED at the Annual Convocation beginning in 2022. The Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of this Fund Committee. The Fund Committee shall make an annual report to this Grand Commandery.

The joint Fund Committee shall be responsible for setting up the program of Perpetual Memberships, prescribing rules for determining eligibility costs, transfers, terminations and other matters; and shall also be responsible for investing the funds received and prescribing the amounts to be paid annually to each Chapter, Council, and Commandery. Provided, however that no funds may be withdrawn from the corpus funds paid to obtain a Perpetual Membership, except under such emergency conditions as may be determined and approved by Vote of the Grand Body.

The Fund Committee may alter, amend and/or revise its rules and regulations from time to time in order to maintain a sound program.

2.11. JURISDICTION OF CANDIDATES

2.11.1. General. Any qualified Master Mason may petition for the Capitular Degrees in any Chapter within the County in which he has his legal residence, or in a Chapter in any other County which borders the County of legal residence; i.e., all Chapters located within a County of this State will enjoy concurrent jurisdiction over candidates with all other Counties which border said County. Provided, however, that any qualified Master Mason who resides in a County in which there is no Chapter and which County is not bordered by a County in which there is a Chapter may petition the Chapter nearest to him in this State.

2.11.2. Penalty for Violation of Jurisdiction. Should any Chapter confer such degrees in violation of this section, the fees for the same shall be paid by said delinquent Chapter to the Chapter within whose jurisdiction the candidate may reside; and the delinquent Chapter may also be suspended or otherwise punished at the discretion of the Grand Chapter.

2.11.3. Waiver. Upon application and for good cause shown the Grand High Priest may grant a waiver of jurisdiction and allow a Chapter to accept, receive, and confer the degrees upon a candidate notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 2.11.1 and 2.11.4. Blue Lodge Membership Not a Factor. The Chapter nearest the residence of a Master Mason holds jurisdiction irrespective of the location of his Blue Lodge.

2.11.5. Non-Resident May Apply to Nearest Chapter, When.

This Grand Chapter freely concedes to Chapters in States adjoining ours, the privileges of receiving petitions and conferring Chapter degrees upon citizens in Georgia whose residence shall be nearer to such Chapters than to any Chapter in Georgia, provided Chapters are chartered by a Grand Chapter with whom we are in correspondence; provided also that the same privileges are extended to the Chapters of this State by said jurisdiction.

2.12. CANDIDATES

2.12.1. Application. No person shall receive the degrees conferred in a subordinate Chapter unless he be affiliated with some Symbolic Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Georgia, and then only upon a regular petition of application. The application must be vouched for by two members, and be referred to a Committee of three members, and must lie over until the next Regular convocation for consideration; provided, however, the Grand High Priest shall have authority in emergency, the urgency of which is to be judged by him, to grant his dispensation, allowing subordinate Chapters to receive and ballot upon applications for membership at one and the same convocation.

2.12.2. Requirements. Every candidate for the Capitular Degrees must be an affiliated Master Mason in good standing, a resident of the State of Georgia, for one year, and of the territorial jurisdiction of the Chapter to which he applies for six (6) months, next preceding the presentation of his petition. If the petitioner is physically defective by reason of deformities or being maimed, and is still able to earn a livelihood and honestly acquire a means of subsistence and can conform substantially to the forms and ceremonies of Masonry and be instructed in its mysteries, eligibility shall be determined by the Chapter to which the candidate has applied, and if determined favorable will be eligible to receive the Capitular Degrees after the action of the Chapter has been approved by the Grand High Priest in writing.

2.12.3. Failure to Take Degrees. If an applicant is elected to take the degrees and fails to present himself for initiation within six months thereafter without acceptable excuse to the Chapter, his election shall be null and void. A Chapter cannot confer the degrees unless such person is re-elected upon a new application.

2.12.4. Minimum Fees. No Chapter shall confer the degrees for less sum than $35.00, and no portion of it can be returned; either as a loan, donation, or otherwise. Provided, however, that any subordinate Chapter in obedience to this Grand Chapter may collect and pay over to any Council of the Cryptic Rite having territorial jurisdiction, the fee for the degrees in order that the degrees of said Cryptic Rite may be conferred on an applicant for the Capitular degrees. If and when a Chapter collects the fee for the Cryptic Rite, the minimum fee collected by the Chapter must be at least $35.00 plus the amount of the regular fee charged by the Council involved.

This provision, however, is only to be in force or effect if said applicant petitions for the Cryptic degrees within thirty days after his exaltation, and said Cryptic degrees are conferred within six months after the application is received. The subordinate Chapter may divide its fee for each degree, or it may require the payment of the entire fee for the four degrees with the application for the degrees; in case the fee is divided the entire fee must be paid before the Royal Arch Degree shall be conferred.

2.12.5. Eligibility Determined, When. A candidate's eligibility is to be determined by his condition at the time he applies for the degrees, and at the time of conferring the same. If, after taking some of the degrees, he becomes ineligible, he is debarred from taking the remainder.

2.12.6. Withdrawal of Petition. After an application for membership has been received and referred to a Committee, it cannot be withdrawn, but must be balloted on for final action.

2.12.7. Rejected Applicants. An applicant who has been rejected by any Chapter shall not be eligible to receive the degrees until after six months from said rejection, and then only upon a new application addressed to the original Chapter which shall retain jurisdiction.

2.13. BALLOT

2.13.1. In Royal Arch Degree. Ballots for membership and officers can only be taken in the Royal Arch Degree. All other business may be transacted in Mark, Past, or Most Excellent Degrees, only Royal Arch Masons being present.

2.13.2 Secrecy: The ballot on petitions must be inviolably secret, and once begun must be completed without postponement. The result shall be declared by the High Priest after exhibiting the ballot to the King and Scribe for inspection; unless, only one negative ballot appears, in which case he shall order a second ballot, which shall in all cases be final; PROVIDED, that the Grand High priest may, in his discretion, and for good cause, grant a dispensation authorizing another ballot at a Stated Convocation of the Chapter, to be by him designated, of which ballot, all members shall have notice. The same course of procedure shall be had on a ballot for affiliation. It is the duty of every member of the Chapter present to vote.

2.13.3. One Ballot for All Degrees. There shall be one ballot for all of the Capitular degrees.

2.13.4. Collective Ballot. A collective ballot on two or more petitioners may be taken, at the discretion of the High Priest, and when a separate ballot is not called for. The High Priest shall first announce that if a negative ballot appears, a separate ballot on each petitioner will be taken.

2.13.5. No Balloting at District Conventions or York Rite Festivals. No petition shall be balloted upon at a District Convention or York Rite Festival. All candidates for the degrees conferred at District Conventions or York Rite Festivals shall be elected by their respective Chapter at a regular communication. Candidate's election must be attested to by the Secretary of his Chapter to the Secretary of the convention or festival.

2.14. OBJECTIONS

2.14.1. Objections after Election of Candidate. If, after a candidate has been elected to receive the degrees in Chapter, and before he shall have received the degree of Mark Master, an objection may be made by a member of the chapter in good standing to his receiving the degrees. If the objection be recorded upon the minutes, it holds for twelve months, unless withdrawn. If made to the High Priest, it holds during his term of office, but may be withdrawn. The High Priest should inquire of the objecting Companion whether his objection is based upon a violation of the moral law or the laws of the land involving moral turpitude, and if not, it is not valid. The High Priest may, in his discretion, delay the advancement of any candidate without an objection should the circumstances require it.

If, after a candidate shall have received the degree of Mark Master and before he has received the Royal Arch degree, further advancement may be stopped by charges or written objection. If by objection, the reason shall be based upon a violation of the moral law, the laws of Masonry, or the laws of the land involving moral turpitude. Such objection shall terminate at the expiration of three months unless charges have been preferred or the objection has been withdrawn. If charges are preferred further advancement is stopped until such time as the charges are adjudicated and a verdict of not guilty returned

At the close of the Convention, the Chapter should be closed by the Convention Officers or by the Officers of the local Chapter. The same precautions as to security from the presence of unauthorized persons should be exercised as by a Subordinate Chapter. While the work of any or all degrees may be exemplified by the Officers of the Convention, no actual candidate shall be marked, inducted, received and acknowledged, or exalted unless the regular Chapter has been duly opened therefor. Installing Grand Captain of the Host:

Installing Grand High Priest, the officers elected and appointed now stand before you.

Installing Officer:

Companions: You have heard the names of the Officers, both elected and appointed, as reported by the Grand Secretary. If any member of the Grand Chapter knows a just reason why any of these Officers should not be installed, let him speak now, or forever after be silent.

If no objection, I shall proceed.

We are pleased to observe that you still approve the choice made, and we will now proceed with their installation. Masonry teaches that before entering upon any great or important undertaking, we should invoke the blessing of God. Let us, therefore, bow in prayer with our Installing Grand Chaplain. Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host: You will present the Installing Grand Chaplain at the Holy Altar.

Installing Grand Chaplain:

Let us pray. Most holy and glorious Lord God, the Great High Priest of Heaven and Earth; we approach Thee with reverence, and implore thy blessing on the Companion chosen to preside over our ancient Fraternity; fill his heart with the spirit of Thy Service, that his tongue and actions may pronounce Thy Will; make him steadfast; Grant him firmness of mind and kindness of disposition: Teach him to rule his brethren with justice and equity; Animate his heart and strengthen his endeavors to do good. May he inculcate Thy Judgments and Thy laws, and do all that his high office requires, with an eye to Thy Glory and the good of the Craft! Bless him and his associate Officers, and bless those that Thou hast put under him. And grant that when we shall have finished the work of this earthly temple of our bodies, we may be admitted to the glories of that second Temple of the Spirit, eternal in the Heavens. Amen.

Your specific duties and responsibilities are written into the obligations, charges and lectures in our ritual, and in the Royal Arch Masonic Code of Georgia. Broadly speaking, your duties are to know, teach and follow. We cannot teach or follow without knowledge. Knowledge can be obtained only by study and experience. It must therefore be apparent to your mind that your first responsibility is to study your duties and rehearse your procedures so that you may be able to comply with your obligations.

It is not necessary to recapitulate at this time all of the responsibilities of the Grand Officers, however, each of you are required to assent to the following:

- That you will redouble your endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of those of your Companions, who have attained this sublime degree.
- That to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnities of our Ceremonies; behave in open Chapter with the most profound respect and reverence, as an example to your Companions.
- That you will bind your successor in Office to the observance of the same rules to which you have now assented.

Being mindful of these responsibilities: If you are ready and willing to assume the duties of your Office, each of you will place your right hand over your heart. Each of you will say I, pronounce your Name in full and repeat after me.

OBLIGATION

I, do promise and swear that I will serve the Grand Chapter of Georgia, in the Office to which I have been elected or appointed, and will perform all the duties of that Office to the best of my abilities, and that I will support and maintain the Constitution and Regulations of the Grand Chapter of Georgia, and those of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, International. We are certain that you will give to your duties all the study and attention which their importance demands. You will now be conducted to your station.

Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host: You will present the Grand Principal Sojourner-elect at the altar.

CHARGE TO THE EXCELLENT GRAND PRINCIPAL SOJOURNER

Installing Officer:

Companion _____: You have been elected as Excellent Grand Principal Sojourner of the Grand Chapter, and will now be invested with the jewel and apron of your office. This office is one of great importance though subordinate in degree. For that reason attention, obedience, and promptitude are essentially necessary for the faithful performance of its duties. Let the staff of your office support and assist you during the coming year, and May it remind you ever to support and strengthen your superior officers. You will now be conducted to your station.

Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host: You will present the Grand Royal Arch Captain-elect at the altar.

CHARGE TO THE EXCELLENT GRAND ROYAL ARCH
CAPTAIN

Installing Officer:

Companion _____: You have been elected as Excellent Grand Royal Arch Captain of the Grand Chapter, and will now be invested with the jewel and apron of your office. It is your duty to see that the external avenues of the Grand Chapter are securely guarded, and that none are permitted to pass or repass but such as are duly qualified and have the requisite permission. Let vigilance and attention, therefore, actuate you in the discharge of the functions of your important office. You will now be conducted to your station.

Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host: You will present the Grand Masters of the Veils-elect at the altar.

CHARGE TO THE EXCELLENT GRAND MASTERS OF THE VEILS

Installing Officer:

Companion _____ and _____: You have been elected as Excellent Grand Masters of the Veils of the Grand Chapter, and will now be invested with the jewels and aprons of your offices.

As Veils have been placed for the purpose of protecting the approaches of our sacred tabernacle, so it is necessary to have guards stationed to see that none who are unworthy be admitted. You will, therefore, permit none to pass except those who are qualified to beautify and adorn the Temple. Then, although every rod should become a serpent and every serpent an enemy to our Institution, yet shall their utmost exertions to destroy its reputation or to sap its foundation become as impotent as the leprous hand, or as water spilled upon the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. You will now be conducted to your respective stations.

Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host: You will present the Grand Sentinel appointed at the altar.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND SENTINEL

Installing Officer:

Companion _____: You have been selected as Grand Sentinel of the Grand Chapter, and will now be invested with the jewel and apron of your office.

It is your duty to guard the door of the Grand Chapter on the outside; to report to the Grand Royal Arch Captain those who desire to be admitted. The sword which is symbolically placed in your hand, enables you to repel the approach of Cowans and Eavesdroppers, and to guard against surprise. Your punctual attendance is essentially necessary to every convocation. You will now be conducted to your station.

Companion Installing Grand Captain of the Host, you will now make the proclamation.

Companion Captain of the Host:

In the name of the Most Excellent Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Georgia, I proclaim the Grand Chapter Officers of this Grand Chapter to be duly installed into their respective Stations.

CONSTITUTION OF A NEW A CHAPTER

The new Chapter will meet in its hall, and open on the Royal Arch degree; the Grand Officers will meet in any convenient room, not distant, and on being notified by a committee of the new Chapter that its members are ready for their reception, they will proceed to the Chapter room, where, being received by the new Chapter with the Grand Honors, the officers of the new Chapter will resign their stations to the Grand Officers. A procession will then be formed by the Grand Captain of the Host, as follows, which, if the ceremonies are to be public, will repair to the place designated for their performance:

- Sentinel
- Royal Arch Masons, by threes
- Members of the new Chapter, as follows:
 - Three Masters of the Veils
 - Royal Arch Captain, Principal Sojourner, and Captain of Host
 - Secretary, Treasurer, and Chaplain carrying the Pot of Incense
 - Four Companions carrying the Ark
 - A Companion carrying the Great Lights
 - Scribe, High Priest, and King
- Grand Sentinel
- Three Grand Masters of the Veils
- Grand Royal Arch Captain
- Grand Principal Sojourner
- Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer
- Grand Chaplain
- Grand Scribe and Grand King
- Past Grand High Priests
- Grand High Priest

On arriving at the place where the ceremonies are to be performed, the procession halts, faces inward, and the Grand Officers and others pass through. All being seated, the ceremonies commence as follows:

PRAYER

Grand Chaplain:

Almighty and Supreme High Priest of Heaven and Earth! Who is there in heaven but Thee! And who upon earth can stand in competition with Thee. Thine Omniscient Mind brings all things in review, past, present, and to come; Thine Omnipotent Arm directs the movements of the vast creation; Thine Omnipresent Eye penetrates the secret recesses of every heart; Thy boundless beneficence supplies us with every comfort and enjoyment; Thine unspeakable perfections and glory surpass the understanding of the children of men! Our Father, who is in heaven, we invoke Thy benediction upon the purposes of our present assembly. May this Chapter be established to Thine honor and consecrated to Thy glory; may its officers be endowed with wisdom to discern its true interests and fidelity to pursue them; and may its members be ever mindful of the duty they owe to their God, the obedience they owe to their superiors, the love they owe to their equals, and the good-will they owe to all mankind.

GLORY BE TO GOD ON HIGH.

Response:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. So mote it be. Amen.

(There will be music or an ode. The Grand Captain of the Host then forms the new Chapter in front of the Grand High Priest, and says:)

Grand Captain of the Host:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, a number of companions, duly instructed in the sublime mysteries, being desirous of promoting the honor, and propagating the principles of the Art, have applied to the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons in this place; which having been obtained, they are now here assembled for the purpose of being constituted and having their officers installed in due and ancient form.

Grand High Priest:

Let the Charter be read. (Grand Secretary reads it.)

Grand High Priest:

Companions: Do you still approve of the officers herein named?

Companions:

We do.

Grand High Priest:

Then, by virtue of the high powers in me vested, I do herewith form you, my respected Companions, into a regular Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. From henceforth you are authorized and empowered to open and hold Lodges of Mark Masters, Past Masters, and Most Excellent Masters, and a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons; and to do and perform all such things as thereunto may appertain; conforming in all your doings to the Constitution and the General Regulations of the Grand Chapter of this State and the Constitution and General Regulations of the General Grand Chapter Royal Arch Masons, International. And may the God of your father be with you, and guide you and direct you in all your doings.

The Ark or the Covenant, and the furniture, clothing, jewels, and implements, belonging to the Chapter (having been previously placed in the center, in front of the Grand High Priest) are now uncovered and the dedication proceeds.

DEDICATION

(The Grand Chaplain takes the Pot of Incense in hand.)

Grand Chaplain:

To our Most Excellent Patron, Zerubbabel, we solemnly dedicate this Chapter. May the blessing of our Heavenly High Priest descend and rest upon its members, and may their felicity be immortal. (Lights and places incense on the Ark.) Glory be to God on high.

Response:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and forever shall be, world without end. Amen.

(There will be music or an ode. The Grand Captain of the Host then presents the High Priest-elect of the new Chapter to the Grand High Priest.)

INSTALLATION

Grand Captain of the Host:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, I present you Companion _____, who has been nominated by this new Charter to serve as high priest and now declares himself ready for installation. I find him to be skillful in the Royal Art, and attentive to the moral precepts of our forefathers, and have therefore no doubt but he will discharge the duties of his office with fidelity. At the annual installation of the officers of a Chapter, the retiring High Priest or some Past High Priest will perform the duties of Installing Officers, as herein provided, for the Grand High Priest. A Past High Priest, if one be present—if not, some other suitable Companion—will present the High Priest-elect to the Installing Officer (who will be addressed by his proper title) in the following words:

Past High Priest:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest, I present you Companion _____, who has been duly elected to serve this Chapter as High Priest for the ensuing Masonic year, and who now declares himself ready for installation. The High Priest-elect then turns and faces the companions.

Installing Officer:

Companions, you behold before you Companion _____, who has been elected to serve this Chapter as High Priest, and who now declares himself ready for installation. If any of you have any reasons to urge why he should not be installed, you will make them known now, or else forever hereafter hold your peace. Hearing no objections, I shall proceed to install him. (By changing the titles, this formula can be used for the other officers.)

Grand High Priest:

Excellent Companion: I feel much satisfaction in performing my duty on the present occasion, by installing you into the office of High Priest of this Chapter. It is an office highly honorable to all those who diligently perform the important duties which belong to it. Your reputed Masonic knowledge, however precludes the necessity of a particular enumeration of those duties. I shall therefore only observe, that by a frequent recurrence to the Constitution and General Regulations, and a constant study of our sublime science, you will be best able to fulfill them; and I am confident that the Companions who are chosen to assist you will give strength to your endeavors and support to your exertions. I shall now propose certain questions to you relative to the duties of your office, to which I must request your unequivocal answer.

- Do you solemnly promise that you will redouble your endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of those of your Companions who have attained this sublime degree?
- That you will never suffer your Chapter to be opened unless there be present nine regular Royal Arch Masons?
- That you will never suffer either more or less than three brethren to be exalted in your Chapter at one and the same time?
- That you will not exalt any one to this degree who has not shown a charitable and humane disposition; or who has not made a considerable proficiency in the foregoing degrees?
- That you will promote the general good of our fraternity, and on all proper occasions, be ready to give and receive instructions, and particularly from the General and State Grand Officers?
- That to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnities of our ceremonies, and behave, in open Chapter, with the most profound respect and reverence, as an example to your Companions?
- That you will not acknowledge or have intercourse with any Chapter that does not work under a constitutional charter or dispensation?

- That you will not admit any visitor into your Chapter who has not been exalted in a Chapter legally constituted, without his being first formally healed?
- That you will observe and support such by-laws as may be made by your Chapter, in conformity to the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons International, and the Constitution and General Regulation of the Grand Chapter of this State?
- That you will pay due respect and obedience to the instructions of the General and State Grand Officers, particularly relating to the several lectures and charges, and will resign the chair to them, severally, when they may visit your Chapter officially?
- That you will support and observe the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons International, and the Constitution and General Regulations of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter under whose authority you act?
- That you will bind your successor in office to the observance of the same rules to which you have now assented?

Do you submit to all these things, and do you promise to observe and practice them faithfully?

(These questions being answered in the affirmative, the Grand Captain of the Host will cause the High Priest-elect to kneel at the Altar and escort the Grand Chaplain to the Alter.)

Installing Grand Chaplain:

Most Holy and Glorious Lord God, the Great High Priest of heaven and earth! We approach Thee with reverence, and implore Thy blessing on the Companion elected to preside over this Chapter, and now prostrate before Thee; fill his heart with Thy fear, that his tongue and actions may pronounce Thy glory. Make him steadfast in Thy Service; grant him firmness of mind, animate his heart, and strengthen his endeavors; may he teach Thy judgments and Thy laws; and may the incense he shall put before Thee, upon Thine altar, prove an acceptable sacrifice unto Thee. Bless him O Lord, and bless the work of his hands. Accept us in mercy. Hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, and forgive our transgressions. Glory be to God on high.

Response:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. So mote it be. Amen.

(The Grand High Priest will then administer the following obligation.)

Grand High Priest:

I, _____, do promise upon my honor as a Mason that I will serve this Chapter, as High Priest, for the term for which I have been elected; that I will perform all the duties, appertaining to that office to the best of my abilities, and will support and maintain the Constitution and General Regulations of the Grand Chapter of the State of Georgia, and those of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, International. (The Grand High Priest will then cause the High Priest-elect to be invested with his clothing, badges, etc.; after which he will address him as follows.)

Grand High Priest:

Excellent Companion: In consequence of your cheerful acquiescence with the charges, which you have heard recited, you are qualified for installation as the High Priest of this Royal Arch Chapter; and it is incumbent upon me, on this occasion, to point out some of the particulars appertaining to your office, duty and dignity.

The High Priest of every Chapter has it in special charge to see:

- That the By-Laws of his Chapter, as well as the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, International and the Constitution and General Regulations of the Grand Chapter are duly observed;
- That all the officers of his Chapter perform the duties of their respective offices faithfully and are examples of diligence and industry to their companions;
- That true and accurate records of all the proceedings of the Chapter are kept by the Secretary;
- That the Treasurer keeps and renders exact and just accounts of all the monies and other property belonging to the Chapter;
- That the regular returns be made monthly to the Grand Chapter; and
- That the annual dues to the Grand Chapter be regularly and punctually paid.
- He has the right and authority of calling his Chapter together at pleasure upon any emergency or occurrence which, in his judgment, may require their meeting.
- It is his privilege and duty, together with the King and Scribe, to attend the meetings of the Grand Chapter, either in person or by proxy; and the well-being of the institution requires that this duty should on no occasion be omitted.

Let the Mitre with which you are crowned remind you of the dignity of the office you sustain, and its inscription impress upon your mind a sense of your dependence upon God; that perfection is not given unto man upon earth, and that holiness belongeth unto the Lord alone.

The Breastplate with which you are decorated—an imitation of that upon which were engraven the names of the twelve tribes and worn by the High Priest of Israel—is to teach you that you are always to bear in mind your responsibility to the laws and ordinances of the institution, and that the honor and interests of your Chapter and its members should be always near your heart. The various colors of the Robes you wear are emblematical of every grace and virtue which can adorn and beautify the human mind; each of which will be briefly illustrated in the course of the charges to be delivered to your subordinate officers.

I now deliver into your hands the Charter under which you are to work. You will receive it as a sacred deposit, and never permit it to be used for any other purposes than those expressed in it, and safely transmit it to your successor in office.

(There will be music or an ode.)

You will now take charge of your officers, standing at their right, and present them severally in succession to the Grand Captain of the Host, by whom they will be presented to me for installation.

(The High Priest of the Chapter will then present each of his officers in succession to the Grand Captain of the Host, who will present the officer to the Grand High Priest, in the words already used in presenting the High Priest, making the necessary variation for the office. The Officers will then be obligated, severally or together, as may be preferred, and the appropriate charge will be delivered to each.)

AT ANNUAL INSTALLATIONS:

Installing Officer:

You will now assume your station in the East and proceed with the installation of your Subordinate Officers.

The High Priest will proceed with the installation or request the installing officer to continue the ceremony.

CHARGE TO THE KING

Installing Officer:

Companion: The important station to which you are elected in this Chapter requires from you exemplary conduct; its duties demand your most assiduous attention; you are to second and support your chief in all the requirements of his office, and should casualties at any time prevent his attendance, you are to succeed him in the performance of his duties.

Your badge, the Level - surmounted by a Crown, should remind you that, although you are the representative of a King, and exalted by office above your companions, yet that you remain upon a level with them, as respects your duty to God, your neighbor, and yourself; that you are equally bound with them to be obedient to the laws and ordinances of the institution, to be charitable, humane, and just and to seek every occasion of doing good.

Your office teaches a striking lesson of humility. The institutions of political society teach us to consider the King as the chief of created beings, and that the first duty of his subjects is to obey his mandates; but the institution of our sublime degrees, by placing the King in a situation subordinate to the High Priest, teach us that our duty to God is paramount to all other duties, and should ever claim the priority of our obedience to man; and that, however strongly we may be bound to obey the laws of civil society, yet that those laws, to be just, should never intermeddle with matters of conscience, nor dictate articles of faith.

The Scarlet Robe, an emblem of imperial dignity, should remind you of the paternal concern you should ever feel for the welfare of your Chapter, and the fervency and zeal with which you should endeavor to promote its prosperity.

In presenting to you the crown, which is an emblem of royalty, I would remind you that to reign sovereign in the hearts and affections of men must be fair more grateful to a generous and benevolent mind than to rule over this preeminence with honor and satisfaction, you must subject your own passions and prejudices to the domination of reason and charity.

You are entitled to the second seat in the council of your Companions. Let the bright example of your Illustrious predecessor in the Grand Council at Jerusalem stimulate you to the faithful discharge of your duties; and when the King of kings shall summon you into his immediate presence, from his hand may you receive a crown of glory which shall never fade away.

(There will be music or an ode.)

CHARGE TO THE SCRIBE

Installing Officer:

Companion: The office of Scribe, to which you are elected, is very important and respectable. In the absence of your superior officers, you are bound to succeed them, and perform their duties. The purposes of the institution ought never to suffer for want of intelligence in its proper officers; you will therefore perceive the necessity there is of your possessing such qualifications as will enable you to accomplish those duties which are incumbent upon you in your appropriate station, as well as those which may occasionally devolve on you by the absence of your superiors. The Purple Robe, with which you are invested, is an emblem of Union, and is calculated to remind you that the harmony and unanimity of the Chapter should be your constant aim; and to this end you are studiously to avoid all occasions of giving offense, or countenancing anything that may create divisions or dissensions. You are, by all means in your power, to endeavor to establish a permanent union and good understanding among all orders and degrees of Masonry; and as the glorious sun, at its meridian height, dispels the mists and clouds which obscure the horizon, so may your exertions tend to dissipate the gloom of jealousy and discord whenever they may appear.

Your badge, a Plumb-rule surmounted by a Turban, is an emblem of rectitude and vigilance; and while you stand as a watchman upon the tower, to guard your Companions against the approach of those enemies of human felicity, intemperance and excess, let this faithful monitor ever remind you to walk uprightly in your station; admonishing and animating your Companions to fidelity and industry while at labor, and to temperance and moderation while at refreshment. And when the great Watchman of Israel, whose eye never slumbers nor sleeps, shall relieve you from your post on earth, may he permit you in heaven to participate in that food and refreshment which is: "Such as the saints in glory love, And such as angels eat."

(There will be music or an ode.)

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER

Installing Officer:

Companion: You are elected Treasurer of this Chapter, and I have the pleasure of investing you with the badge of your Office.

The qualities which should recommend a Treasurer are accuracy and fidelity— accuracy, in keeping a fair and minute account of all receipts and disbursements; fidelity, in carefully preserving all the property and fund of the Chapter that may be placed in his hands, and rendering a just account of the same whenever he is called upon for that purpose. I presume that your respect for the institution, your attachment to the interests of your Chapter, and your regard for a good name, which is better than precious ointment, will prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office.

CHARGE TO THE SECRETARY

Installing Officer:

Companion: I with pleasure invest you with your badge as Secretary. The qualities which should recommend a Secretary are promptitude in issuing the notifications and orders of his superior officers; punctuality in attending the convocations of the Chapter; correctness in recording its proceedings; judgment in discriminating between what is proper and what is improper to be committed to writing; regularity in making his monthly returns to the Grand Chapter; integrity in accounting for all monies that may pass through his hands; and fidelity in paying the same over into the hands of the Treasurer. The possession of these good qualities, I presume, has designated you as a suitable candidate for this important office; and I cannot entertain a doubt that you will discharge its duties beneficially to the Chapter, and honorably to yourself. And when you shall have completed the record of your transactions here below, and finished the term of your probation, may you be admitted into the Celestial Grand Chapter of saints and angels, and find your name recorded in the book of life eternal.

CHARGE TO THE CHAPLAIN

Installing Officer:

Companion: The sacred position of Chaplain has been entrusted to your care, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office. In the discharge of your duties, you will be required to conduct the devotional exercises of our convocations, and to perform the sacred functions at our meetings. Though Masonry be not religion, it is emphatically religion's handmaid; and I am sure that, in ministering at its altar, the services you may perform will lose nothing of their vital importance because they are practiced in that spirit of universal tolerance which distinguishes our institution. The doctrines of morality and virtue will form the appropriate lessons which you are expected to communicate to your Companions. The confidence expressed in your appointment as Chaplain of this Chapter is the best guaranty that you will discharge the duties with steadfastness and perseverance in well-doing.

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN OF THE HOST

Installing Officer:

Companion: The office with which you are entrusted is of high importance, and demands your most zealous consideration. The preservation of the most essential traits of our ancient customs, usages, and landmarks is within your province; and it is indispensably necessary that the part assigned to you, in the immediate practice of our rites and ceremonies, should be perfectly understood and correctly administered. Your office corresponds with that of Marshal, or Master of Ceremonies. You are to superintend all processions of your Chapter, when moving in a distinct body either in public or private; and as the world can only judge of our private discipline by our public deportment, you will be careful that the utmost order and decorum be observed on all occasions. You will ever be attentive to the commands of your chief, and always near at hand to see them duly executed.

I invest you with the badge of your office, and arm you with a sword, and I presume that you will give to your duties all that study and attention which their importance demands.

CHARGE TO THE PRINCIPAL SOJOURNER

Installing Officer:

Companion: The office confided to you, though subordinate in degree, is equal in importance to any in the Chapter that of your chief alone accepted. Your office corresponds with that of Senior Deacon in the preparatory degrees, and I now invest you with your badge of office.

Among the duties required of you, the preparation and introduction of candidates are not the least. As, in our intercourse with the world, experience teaches that first impressions are often the most durable, and the most difficult to eradicate, so it is of great importance, in all cases, that those impressions should be correct and just; hence it is essential that the officer who brings the blind by a way that they know not, and leads them in paths that they have not known, should always be well qualified to make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight.

Your robe of office is an emblem of humility; and teaches that, in the prosecution of a laudable undertaking, we should never decline taking any part that may be assigned us, although it may be the most difficult or dangerous.

The rose-colored Tessellated Border adorning the robe is an emblem of ardor and perseverance, and signifies that when we have engaged in a virtuous cause notwithstanding all the impediments, hardships, and trials we may be destined to encounter, we should endure them all with fortitude and ardently persevere unto the end; resting assured and receiving, at the termination of our labors, a noble and glorious reward. Your past exertions will be considered as a pledge of your future assiduity in the faithful discharge of your duties.

CHARGE TO THE ROYAL ARCH CAPTAIN

Installing Officer:

Companion: The well-known duties of your station require but little elucidation. Your office in the preparatory degrees corresponds with that of Junior Deacon. It is your province, conjointly with the Captain of the Host, to attend the examination of all visitors and to take care that none are permitted to enter the Chapter but such as have traveled the rugged path of trail, and evinced their title to our favor and friendship. You will be attentive to obey the commands of the Captain of the Host during the introduction of strangers among the workmen; so that should they be permitted to pass your post, they may, by him, be introduced into the presence of the Grand Council.

The White Banner, entrusted to your care, is emblematical of that purity of heart and rectitude of conduct which ought to actuate all those who pass the white veil of the sanctuary. I give it to you strongly in charge, never suffer anyone to pass your post without the Signet of Truth. I present you the badge of your office, in expectation of your performing your duties with intelligence, assiduity, and propriety.

CHARGE TO THE MASTER OF THE THIRD VEIL

Installing Officer:

Companion: I invest you with your badge and present you with the scarlet Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and with a sword to protect and defend the same. The rich and beautiful color of your banner is emblematical of fervency and zeal, and is the appropriate color of the Royal Arch degree; it admonishes us that we should be fervent in the exercise of our devotion to God, and zealous in our endeavors to promote the happiness of man.

CHARGE TO THE MASTER OF THE SECOND VEIL

Installing Officer:

Companion: I now invest you with your badge, and present you with the Purple Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and arm you with a sword to enable you to maintain its honor. The color of your banner is produced by a due mixture of blue and scarlet; the former of which is the characteristic color of the symbolic, or first three degrees of Masonry, and the latter that of the Royal Arch degree. It is an emblem of union, and is the characteristic color of the intermediate degrees. It admonishes us to cultivate and improve that spirit of union and harmony, between the brethren of the symbolic degrees and the Companions of the sublime degrees, which should ever distinguish the members of a society founded upon the principles of everlasting truth and universal philanthropy.

CHARGE TO THE MASTER OF THE FIRST VEIL

Installing Officer:

Companion: I invest you with your badge and present you with the Blue Banner, which is the ensign of your office, and a sword for its defense and protection. The color of your banner is one of the most durable and beautiful in nature. It is the appropriate color adopted and worn by our ancient brethren of the three symbolic degrees, and is the peculiar characteristic of an institution which has stood the test of ages, and which is as much distinguished by the durability of its materials, or principles, as by the beauty of its superstructure. It is an emblem of universal friendship and benevolence; and instructs us that, in the mind of a Mason, those virtues should be as expansive as the blue arch of heaven itself.

(Three Masters of the Veils form a triangle immediately behind the altar and upholding their banners.)

Companions: Those who are placed as overseers of any work should be well qualified to judge of its beauties and deformities—its excellences and defects; they should be capable of estimating the former and amending the latter. This consideration should induce you to cultivate and improve all those qualifications with which you are already endowed, as well as to persevere in your endeavors to acquire those in which you are deficient. Let the various colors of the banners committed to your charge admonish you to the exercise of the several virtues of which they are emblematic. You are to enjoin the practice of those virtues upon all who shall present themselves, or the work of their hands, for your inspection. Let no work receive your approbation but such as is calculated to adorn and strengthen the Masonic edifice. Be industrious and faithful in practicing and disseminating a knowledge of the true and perfect work, which alone can stand the test of the Grand Overseer's Square, in the great day of trial and retribution. Then, although every rod should become a serpent, and every serpent an enemy to this institution, yet shall their utmost exertions to destroy its reputation, or sap its foundations, become as impotent as the leprous hand, or as water spilled upon the ground, which cannot be gathered up again.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL

Installing Officer:

Companion: You are appointed Sentinel of this Chapter and I invest you with the badge and this implement of your office. As the sword is placed in the hands of the Sentinel, to enable him effectually to guard against the approach of all cowans and eavesdroppers, and suffer none to pass or repass but such as are duly qualified, so it should morally serve as a constant admonition to us to set a guard at the entrance of our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions, thereby excluding every unqualified and unworthy thought, word, and deed, and preserving consciences void of offense toward God and toward man.

As the first application from visitors for admission into the Chapter is generally made to the Sentinel at the door, your station will often present you to the observation of strangers; it is, therefore, essentially necessary that he who sustains the office with which you are entrusted should be a man of good morals, steady habits, strict discipline, temperate, affable and discreet. I trust that a just reward for the honor and reputation of this institution will ever induce you to perform with fidelity the trust reposed in you; and when the door of this earthly tabernacle shall be closed may you find an abundant entrance through the gates into the temple and city of our God.

(There will be music or an ode.)

CHARGE TO THE TO THE HIGH PRIEST

Installing Officer:

Excellent Companion: Having been honored with the free suffrages of the members of this Chapter, you are elected to the most important office in their power to bestow. This expression of their esteem and respect should draw from you corresponding emotions; and your demeanor should be such as to repay the honor which they have so conspicuously conferred upon you, by an honorable and faithful discharge of the duties of your office. The station which you are called to fill is important, not only as it respects the correct practice of our rites and ceremonies, and the internal economy of the Chapter over which you preside, but the public reputation of the institution will be generally found to rise or fall according to the skill, fidelity and discretion with which its concerns are managed, and in proportion as the characters and conduct of its principal officers are estimable or censurable. You have accepted a trust to which is attached a weight of responsibility which will require all your efforts to discharge honorably to yourself and satisfactorily to the Chapter. You are to see that your officers are capable and faithful in the exercise of their offices. Should they lack ability, you are expected to supply their defects; you are to watch carefully the progress of their performances, and to see that the long-established customs of the institution suffer no derangement at their hands. You are to have a careful eye over the general conduct of the Chapter; see that due order and subordination are observed on all occasions; that the members are properly instructed; that due solemnity be observed in the practice of our rites; and that no improper levity be permitted at any time, but more especially at the introduction of strangers among the workmen.

In fine, you are to be an example to your officers and members which they need not hesitate to follow; thus securing to yourself the favor of Heaven and the applause of your brethren and companions.

Companions in Office: Precept and example should ever advance with equal pace. Those moral duties which you are required to teach unto others you should never neglect to practice yourselves. Do you desire that the demeanor of your equals and inferiors toward you should be marked with deference and respect? Be sure that you omit no opportunity of furnishing them with examples in your own conduct toward your superiors.

Do you desire to obtain instruction from those who are wiser or better informed than yourselves? Be sure that you are always ready to impart of your knowledge to those within your sphere who stand in need of and are entitled to receive it. Do you desire distinction among your companions? Be sure that your claims to preferment are founded upon superior attainments; let no ambitious passion be suffered to induce you to envy or supplant a companion who may be considered better qualified for promotion than yourselves; but rather let a laudable emulation induce you to strive to excel each other in improvement and discipline; ever remembering that he who faithfully performs his duty, even in a subordinate or private station, is as justly entitled to esteem and respect as he who is invested with supreme authority.

ADDRESS TO THE CHAPTER

Installing Officer:

Companions: The exercise and management of the sublime degrees of Masonry in your Chapter hitherto are so highly appreciated, and the good reputation of the Chapter so well established, that I presume these considerations alone, were there no others of greater magnitude, would be sufficient to induce you to preserve and perpetuate this valuable and honorable character. But when to these is added the pleasure which every philanthropic heart must feel in doing good, in promoting good order, in diffusing light and knowledge, in cultivating Masonic charity, which are the great objects of this sublime institution, I cannot doubt that your future conduct, and that of your successors, will be calculated to increase still more the luster of your justly esteemed reputation.

May your Chapter become as beautiful as the Temple, as peaceful as the Ark, and as sacred as its most holy Place. May your oblation of piety and praise be as grateful as the Incense; Your Love as warm as its Flame; and your Charity as diffusive as its fragrance. May your Hearts be as pure as the Altar, and your Conduct acceptable as the Offering. May the exercise of your Charity be as constant as the returning wants of the distressed widow and helpless Orphan. May the approbation of Heaven be your encouragement, and the testimony of a good conscience your support; may you be endowed with every good and perfect gift, while traveling the rugged path of life, and finally be admitted within the veil of Heaven, to the full enjoyment of Life eternal. Amen.

Response:

So mote it be.

(The officers and members of a new Chapter will then pass in review in front of the Grand Officers, with their hands crossed on their breasts, bowing as they pass. The Grand Captain of the Host then makes the following proclamation.)

PROCLAMATION

Grand Captain of the Host:

In the name of the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of the State of Georgia, I proclaim _____ Chapter No. _____, to be legally constituted and consecrated, and the officers thereof duly installed, with the Grand Honors of Royal Arch Masonry.

If the ceremonies are public, public Grand Honors will be given.

BENEDICTION

Grand Chaplain:

(Ad libs closing prayer.)

(The procession, in case the ceremonies have taken place in a church or public place, will then return in the same order as before to the Chapter room, and the Grand Officers retiring, the Chapter will be closed by its officers. At the annual installation of the officers of a Chapter the following proclamation will be used:)

In the name of the Most Excellent Grand Chapter of the State of Georgia, I proclaim the officers of Chapter No. ____, to be duly installed into their respective offices. (Then private Grand Honors are then given.)

If the installation takes place in public, the expression will be "with the public Grand Honors of Masonry by three times three," and the public Grand Honors will be given.

OPTIONAL ABBREVIATED INSTALLATION CEREMONIES FOR INSTALLATION OF CHAPTER OR DISTRICT OFFICERS

(Installing Officers for these Ceremonies are: High Priest, Captain of the Host, and Chaplain. The principal Installing Officer must either be a Past High Priest, a Grand or General Grand Officer. The Installing Officers should be addressed with titles in line with their rank. Upon instructions from the Installing Officer, the Officers-elect are presented by the Captain of the Host with High Priest West of Altar, others back of him.)

Captain of the Host:

_____, High Priest I present before you the Companions who have been duly elected or appointed to serve this Chapter (No. _____ District of Royal Arch Masons) as the Officers for the ensuing year, and who now declare themselves ready for installation.

Installing Officer:

Companions, there are before you these Companions who have been elected or appointed to serve this Chapter (District) for the ensuing year, and who are now ready for installation. If any of you have a lawful or valid reason why either of them should not be installed, please make it known now, or else forever hereafter hold your peace. Hearing no objection I shall proceed.

As Freemasons, we are taught never to enter upon any great or important undertaking without first invoking the aid of Deity.

Therefore, Companion Chaplain please advance to our Holy Altar and invoke the blessings of Almighty God upon our earnest and worthy endeavors.

Chaplain:

Most Holy and Glorious Lord God, the Great High Priest of heaven and earth: We bow before Thee in reverence and with thanksgiving for thy great love and manifold blessings. We implore thy continued care and blessings upon these companions who are about to assume the responsibilities for the welfare and advancement of Capitular Masonry in this area. Give them wisdom to know TRUTH and DUTY: STRENGTH and COURAGE to meet their responsibilities and perform their duties, and good judgment to walk humbly before God and man. AMEN.

Installing Officer:

It is an honor, a privilege, and a distinct pleasure to assist in these installation ceremonies. It is hoped that these Officers-elect are fully aware of the high honors and serious responsibilities which are now to be conferred upon them.

Your specific duties and responsibilities are written into the obligations, charges and lectures in our ritual, in the By-Laws of this Chapter, and the Royal Arch Masonic Code of Georgia. Broadly speaking, your duties are to know, teach and follow. We cannot teach or follow without knowledge. Knowledge can be obtained only by study and experience. It must therefore be apparent to your mind that your first responsibility is to study your duties and rehearse your procedures so that you may be able to comply with your obligations. It should not be necessary to recapitulate at this time all the responsibilities of the High Priest, in which the other officers are duty bound to support him, however, you are required to assent to the following:

1. That you will redouble your endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of those of your Companions who have attained this sublime degree.
2. That to the utmost of your power, you will preserve the solemnities of our ceremonies; behave in open chapter with the most profound respect and reverence, as an example to your companions.

3. That you will pay due respect and obedience to the instructions of the General Grand and State Grand Officers, particularly relating to the several lectures and charges, and will resign the chair to them, severally, when they may visit your Chapter officially.
4. That you will bind your successor in office to the observance of the same rules to which you have now assented.

Being mindful of these responsibilities: If you are ready and willing to assume the duties of your office each of you will place your right hand over your heart, say I, pronounce your name in full and repeat after me.

I solemnly promise to perform the duties of the Office to which I have been elected or appointed to the best of my ability. So help me God and keep me steadfast.

Companions, the success of this Chapter depends not alone on its Officers, but greatly upon all members. If you will support these Officers, by your ATTENDANCE and COOPERATION, please say I WILL.

Companion Captain of the Host, please clothe the Excellent High Priest and conduct him to the East. ***

Excellent High Priest, behold your Companions. Companions, behold your Excellent High Priest and salute him with Grand Honors. (Seat Chapter after Grand Honors.) Companion Captain of the Host, please clothe the other officers and conduct them to their respective stations.

Excellent High Priest, I now deliver into your hands the Charter under which you are to work. You will receive it as a sacred deposit; never permit it to be used for any other purposes than those expressed in it, and safely transmit it to your successor in office. May I remind you at this time of an important fact: Your station designates you as the leader in this Chapter, and when the record of the accomplishments or failures of the ensuing year have become history it will be a measure of your zeal and fidelity. Look well to the East. Companion Captain of the Host, you will make the proclamation.

Captain of the Host:

In the name of the Most Excellent Grand Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, State of Georgia, I proclaim the Officers of _____, Chapter No. _____ (or District) to be duly installed into their respective Stations.
