2.6.5. Forfeiture of Charter, Effect on Members. When the charter of a Council shall have been surrendered or arrested, the members thereof in good standing shall, upon payment to this Grand Council of such dues, as may be owing to such Council, be entitled to a certificate of good standing from the Grand Recorder. However, in the case of the arrest of the charter, the Illustrious Grand Master may suspend, and this Grand Council may prohibit the issuing of such certificates to those whose actions or neglect of duty may have caused the arrest of the charter.

2.6.6. Forfeiture of Charter, Disposal of Property. Whenever a Council forfeits its charter, the funds, books, seal, and other property of the extinct Council become the property of this Grand Council which may make such disposition thereof as it deems proper.

2.7. BY-LAWS

- 7) The Conductor of Council
- 8) The Marshal (Optional)

- 11) The Chaplain
- 12) The Organist

The Illustrious Master has it in special charge to see that the By-Laws of his Council are duly observed, as well as the Statutes, Rules, and Regulations of the Grand Council; that accurate records are made, and just accounts rendered, that regular returns are made to this Grand Council, and that the annual dues are promptly paid. It is his duty to preside at all Assemblies of his Council, and he is responsible for the proper conduct of its affairs. It is his duty, either in person or by proxy, to attend all Assemblies of this Grand Council and to see that the Recorder of his Council promptly discharges his duty in reference to Council returns and dues. The duties of the remaining officers are such as are traditionally appropriate to their respective stations or as may be specifically set forth in regulations to that effect.

2.8.1.4. Returns to Grand Council. The Grand York Rite Bodies adopted a new database effective July 8, 2019. The new database mandates that the Secretary/Recorders update and maintain current roster information on the database. Additionally, the Secretary/Recorders are mandated to Confirm Maintenance between the 1st and 5th of each month. Failure to make returns or pay dues for two consecutive years subjects the Council to forfeiture of its Charter unless otherwise ordered by the Grand Council.

2.8.1.5. Council Under Dispensation not Liable for Per Capita Tax. Councils under dispensation do not pay Grand Council dues on their members, but pay fees on Degrees conferred; the same as chartered Councils, as shown by Section 2.4.1, Paragraph (5).

- 1) Councils must hold all their Assemblies in some suitable room at the place named in the dispensation, or charter, and in no case are they permitted to change their place of meeting without special leave of the Illustrious Grand Master; provided, that no Council shall be allowed to remove its place of meeting to another City or Town except the same be approved by not less than two-thirds of all members present at a Stated Assembly, or at a Special Assembly set apart for that purpose. All resident members of the Council must have at least ten days' notice of the proposed removal and the time for taking action thereon.
- 2) If the hall of the Council authorized in the dispensation, or charter, becomes an unfit or improper place from any cause for holding the Assemblies, the Illustrious Grand Master may authorize it to hold its Assemblies elsewhere in the same City or Town as is specified in the dispensation or charter.

2.8.2.1. Dispensation for Council Granted Nine Members, When.

No dispensation shall be granted for the creation of a new Council except on the petition of nine or more Royal and Select Masters, who are members of some regular Council, directed to the Grand Council and recommended by the Council nearest the place where the new Council is to be located. Attached to this petition must be a Certificate from the Recorder of each Council to which said petitioners belong, showing that each of them is clear of all demands and indebtedness to their old Council, and that there are not any charges pending against them. No dispensation shall be issued until the Illustrious Grand Master is satisfied that the petitioners are skillful and well qualified to confer the Degrees, and that the interests of the Order will be well served by the formation of such new Council

2.8.2.2. Name of Council. No Council shall be named for, nor may a Council change its name, to that of a living person or any person who has been deceased less than 3 years, nor a name held by an active Council of this Grand Jurisdiction.

2.8.2.3. Membership as Between Old and New Councils. The members of a Council under Dispensation continue to be members of the Council to which they belonged when the dispensation was granted. Any Petitioner for a Dispensation for a new Council may sever his connection with such new Council at any time before a Charter is granted by notice to the Grand Recorder, and the new Council, and his Certificate of Good Standing or Demit shall be returned; and his membership shall remain with his former Council. Whenever the new Council is chartered and constituted, the members immediately become members of the new Council, and their membership in the former Council ceases without the necessity of obtaining a demit. Such member may signify their desire to hold dual membership and they will continue as dual members. The Recorder of the new Council shall notify the Recorder of the former Council to which the Companion belonged of their intention to hold dual membership.

2.8.2.4. Council Under Dispensation, Powers. A Council under dispensation may confer the Degrees upon candidates; and do all other things clearly expressed in its dispensation.

2.8.2.5. Dispensation Withdrawn or Charter Refused, Effect on Petitioners. If the dispensation should be withdrawn or a charter refused, the affiliated Companions who petitioned therefor resume their membership in their former Councils without petition or other action.

2.8.2.6. Report to Grand Recorder. The Recorders of Councils under dispensation shall forward to the Grand Recorder, not later than February 1st, a list of all members enrolled on December 31st.

2.8.2.7. Council Under Dispensation, Constituted by Whom. A Council under dispensation shall be constituted by the Illustrious Grand Master or by some present or past Illustrious Master by him specially deputized.

2.8.2.8. Report of Constitution Required. When constituted, report thereof shall be made to the Illustrious Grand Master and Grand Recorder.

2.8.2.9. Suitable Hall Required. No Council shall be constituted until it is provided with a suitable hall, properly furnished.

2.8.2.10. Reading of Dispensation Required. When a new Council commences work, the dispensation must be read and recorded in full in the book of records.

2.8.2.11. Notice to Other Councils Required. When a charter is granted, and the Council has been constituted, the Grand Recorder shall certify the fact to each Council to which any of the petitioning Companions belonged.

2.8.2.12. Appointment of Three Principal Officers. The Offices of Illustrious Master, Deputy Master, and Principal Conductor of Work of a Council under dispensation shall be filled by appointment of the Illustrious Grand Master, and all the other officers shall be appointed by the Illustrious Master. The Officers of a Council under dispensation shall hold office during the continuance of the dispensation, but the Illustrious Grand Master shall have the power to relieve any officer and appoint another in his stead.

2.8.2.13. Chartered Council Constituted by Whom. A chartered Council may be constituted only by the Illustrious Grand Master, or his duly appointed proxy.

2.8.2.14. Charters Granted, When and How. Charters shall be granted by a vote of this Grand Council at the Annual Assembly only.

2.8.3. Chartered Councils.

2.8.3.1. Who Presides in the Absence of Illustrious Master. In the absence of the Illustrious Master, the Deputy Master, and in the absence of both, the Principal Conductor of Work, and in the absence of all three, the Junior Past Illustrious Master present shall preside.

2.8.3.2. Disability of the Illustrious Master. In the case of the death or disability of the Illustrious Master, the Deputy Master shall assume his prerogatives and duties.

2.8.3.3. Removal of Illustrious Master. When the Illustrious Master changes his place of residence beyond the jurisdiction of this Grand Council, the Illustrious Grand Master may vacate his office, and he can exercise its powers no longer.

2.8.3.4. Stated Assemblies. The Stated Assemblies of a Council shall be held at the time specified in the By-laws, which must require an Assembly at least once in three months, except that Constituent Councils may, if they so desire, dispense with the Stated Assemblies in the months of June, July, and August.

2.8.3.5. Special Assemblies. Special Assemblies of a Council may be held at the pleasure of the Illustrious Master, and the purpose of such Special Assembly must be distinctly stated in the notice. No other business shall be transacted but that for which the Special Assembly was convened.

2.8.3.6. Quorum Required. In the absence of a quorum (9 or more), no business may be transacted; but a quorum being present, the vote of a less number is valid. A Council may open in the Royal Master's Degree, with a minimum of five members present, to transact business as necessary, except that balloting on petitions and officers may take place on the Royal Master's Degree only by dispensation granted by the Illustrious Grand Master in his discretion.

2.8.3.7. Business. All business of the Council must be transacted at a Stated Assembly, or at a Special Assembly, of which the notice of the said Special Assembly and of the business to be transacted shall have been given to each resident member of the Council.

2.8.3.8. Questions Determined. At every Assembly all questions (except upon the acceptance of candidates for the Degrees, of membership, and suspension, expulsion and restoration of Companions, and changing of By-Laws) shall be determined by a majority of votes. In case the votes are equally divided, the Illustrious Master shall cast the deciding vote.

2.8.3.9. No Appeal from Master's Decision. No appeal shall lie to the Council from the decision of the Illustrious Master. His decisions may only be reviewed by the Illustrious Grand Master during the recess of this Grand Council, or by appeal direct to this Grand Council.

2.8.3.10. Notice. A notice is a request to attend the Council, made by order of the Council or the Illustrious Master, and should be obeyed in good faith, unless the Companion receiving it should be unavoidably prevented from attending. When it shall become necessary to give notice to resident members of a Council of any matter to be acted upon by the Council, the Recorder shall issue a notice setting forth the subject to be considered by the Council and when it is to be acted upon, and notifying the members to be present; he shall, at least three days before such action is to be taken, deposit in the Post Office a copy of such notice, sealed, addressed to such member of said Council residing in the territorial jurisdiction of such Council; or he shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, a copy of said notice to each of said members at least three days before such action is to be taken, and shall make return in writing on said notice, of the service thereof, which notice and return shall be spread upon the records.

2.8.4. Membership.

2.8.4.1. Ipso Facto Members. Those to whom a charter is issued and those who receive the Degrees in a Council are ipso facto members thereof, whether such Council be chartered or under dispensation.

2.8.4.2. Membership in More Than One Council. A Companion may be a member of more than one Council; provided, however, that he must pay full dues in each Council and not hold emeritus membership in more than one Council, and that he may not be a voting representative to the Grand Council from more than one Council at the same time.

2.8.4.3. Members of Extinct Councils May Join Another Council.

When a Council has ceased to exist, any member thereof may join another Council upon petition and certificate from the Grand Recorder that his standing therein was good when said Council ceased to exist, and that all dues or other liabilities have been paid. Companions suspended by an extinct Council for non-payment of dues may be reinstated at the discretion of the Grand Recorder upon payment of all arrearages plus the reinstatement fee, and the Grand Recorder may thereafter issue a certificate of good standing. A member of an extinct Council is not liable for dues after the Council has become extinct. But this Grand Council has the right to collect from members all dues chargeable against him up to the time it became extinct, and to discipline those who refuse or neglect to pay the same.

2.8.4.4. Right to Demit. A member of a Council shall be entitled to receive a demit at a Stated Assembly upon his written request or by a viva voce vote; PROVIDED, his dues shall have been paid and no charges are pending against him. And this severs the membership, whether a certificate issues or not, no Council shall grant a demit to any of its members until dues have been paid or remitted, nor to one who is under charges; nor to one who has, in his official capacity, become indebted to the Council, so long as such indebtedness remains.

2.8.4.5. Non-Affiliate. A Select Master becomes a non-affiliate whenever he demits from his Council, or ceases to be a member thereof by any means other than suspension or expulsion. Voluntary non-affiliation by demit or otherwise, in a Lodge or Chapter, for six months, without any effort to become affiliated, shall result in a Select Master forfeiting his membership in the Council.

2.8.4.6. Transfer of Membership by Certificate of Good Standing. If a Companion, against whom no charges are pending and who is otherwise in good standing with current dues paid, desires to transfer his membership to or affiliate with another Council without taking a demit, he shall be entitled to a Certificate of Good Standing upon application therefore, the vote to be taken as for a demit. In the event of a failure on the part of his Council to hold an Assembly for three months or in the event the vote does not grant the Certificate and no charges are preferred against the Companion by the end of the next regular Assembly, the Illustrious Master shall order the Certificate of Good Standing issued to him. The Companion may then attach such certificate to a petition for affiliation and submit it to any Council with which he desires to affiliate, and if his petition is granted, the Recorder of the affiliating Council shall notify the Recorder of the Council that issued the Certificate and the Grand Recorder of the affiliation and whether the affiliation is a transfer of membership or for membership in more than one Council.

2.8.4.7. Affiliation Requirements. A petitioner for affiliation in a Council under the jurisdiction of the Grand Council of Georgia, must be a member of some Symbolic Lodge recognized by the Grand Lodge of Georgia and of a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and his petition shall give the name and the number, and the location of the Lodge and the Chapter of which he is a member.

2.8.4.8. Visitation Limited. No Select Master, who shall voluntarily remain unaffiliated for more than six months, shall be permitted to visit any Council in this jurisdiction, nor shall he appear in any procession of Cryptic Masons, nor shall he be entitled to receive Masonic relief from any Council.

2.8.5. Elections.

2.8.5.1. Officers Must be Elected. All the officers of the Council shall be elective, unless otherwise provided in the By-Laws of such Council.

2.8.5.2. Eligibility for Office. Every member in good standing is eligible for any office in the Council.

2.8.5.3. Elections, When. All elections of officers in Constituent Councils must be by ballot, at the last Stated Assembly previous to December 27 in each year, and a majority of the votes cast shall be necessary to elect.

2.8.5.4. Postponement of Election. Should any Council fail to elect its officers at the time prescribed by its By-Laws, it shall forthwith lay the matter before the Illustrious Grand Master, who, for good cause shown, may grant a dispensation to hold an election as soon thereafter as may be practicable; and all members shall be duly notified of the time set for such election. Such dispensation shall be entered upon the records of the Council.

2.8.5.5. Tenure of Office. The several officers shall hold their respective offices until their successors have been duly elected and installed.

2.8.5.6. Council Must Have Been Constituted. The officers may only be elected and installed after the Council shall have been duly constituted, in the presence of at least nine of its members.

2.8.5.7. Public Installation. A Council may hold a public installation in its own hall without a special dispensation from the Illustrious Grand Master, but such dispensation is required in order to hold a public installation in any other place.

2.8.5.8. Failure to Be Installed. If an officer, duly elected or appointed, shall, without reasonable excuse, neglect to attend at the time fixed for installation, his election or appointment may be declared void by a vote of the Body which elected him.

2.8.6. Dues to Constituent Councils.

2.8.6.1. Remission of Dues.

- 1) The dues of any member of a Council may be remitted, in whole or in part, for inability to pay upon proper application in person or in writing or upon the statement of facts of a Companion, justifying such action.
- 2) A Council may, for good cause, remit the dues of a Companion, who has been suspended for the non-payment of dues, and such remission shall have the same effect as payment thereof would have.
- 3) A Constituent Council may not remit the dues of a member until they have accrued.

- 4) A Constituent Council having upon proper motion remitted the dues of a member, no reconsideration at a subsequent Assembly is permissible. If imposition has been practiced in obtaining the remission of dues, the Companion guilty of the imposition should be disciplined.
- 5) Constituent Councils will not be assessed for per capita tax on members whose dues have been remitted under authority of this section.

2.8.6.2. Non-Payment of Dues.

2.8.6.3. Dues Payable on January 1. The dues of Constituent Councils are payable on January 1st of each year, in advance.

2.8.6.4. Recorder Must Issue Notice. Whenever a member shall fail to pay his dues at the time when the same became due and payable, as fixed by the By-Laws of the Council, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to notify him of such delinquency by delivering to him, in person, a bill for such indebtedness, or by mailing the same in a sealed envelope, addressed to him at his present or last known place of residence; should the delinquent refuse or fail to pay the dues within twelve months after the issuance of such notice, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to notify the Illustrious Master of such failure, who shall at the next Stated Assembly of the Council, order a notice to be given the delinquent by the Recorder, requiring him to appear at a specified subsequent Stated Assembly, to show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues, which notice shall be in the following form:

NOTICE TO SHOW CAUSE

Hall of _____ Council No. _____, R. & S.M.
_____, 20____

Companion:

You are hereby notified to appear before _____ Council No. _____, R. & S.M., at its Assembly to be held on the _____ day of _____, 20____, and show cause why you should not be suspended for non-payment of dues.

By order of the Illustrious Master.

(Seal) _____, Recorder

2.8.6.5. Twenty Days Notice Required. Such notice shall be served by the Recorder by mailing to last known address or causing same to be delivered by a Companion, to that delinquent, twenty days before the Assembly at which he is to appear.

2.8.6.6. Suspension. Should the delinquent fail to appear, his dues remain unpaid, or the same be not remitted for good cause, or the time for payment extended by a majority vote of the members present, the Illustrious Master, upon proof of notice and the fact of arrearage shall put the question: "Shall Companion _____ be suspended for non-payment of dues?" which shall be determined by a viva voce vote, and if the majority of those present vote in the affirmative, the Illustrious Master shall declare the Companion suspended.

2.8.6.7. Payment of Dues Before Ballot or Within Twelve Months After Suspension. Payment of dues before the ballot is taken shall stop proceedings, and after suspension, if paid within twelve months, shall reinstate the Companion. If paid after suspension the Recorder shall report the same to the Council, and the fact of such payment shall be noted in the proceedings of the Council.

2.8.6.8. Petition for Reinstatement Required After Twelve Months. No Companion who shall remain in arrears for one year after his suspension shall be reinstated except on a unanimous vote of the members of the Council present at the time of his application being acted upon and shall be read by the Recorder.

2.8.6.9. Petition for Reinstatement Must be Received. Neither the Illustrious Master nor the Council may refuse to entertain the petition for reinstatement of a Companion who has been suspended for non-payment of dues.

2.8.6.10. Petition for Reinstatement May Be Referred to Committee. The Council has the right when deemed advisable, to appoint a Committee to inquire into the character and conduct of the petitioner for reinstatement who has been suspended for more than one year for non-payment of dues.

2.8.6.11. A Petition for Reinstatement May Be Renewed. A Companion who has been suspended for non-payment of dues for one year or more, and whose petition for reinstatement has been rejected, may renew his petition at any subsequent Assembly of the Council.

2.8.6.12. Emeritus Members. Effective July 1, 2013, new emeritus memberships were discontinued. Those emeritus members already holding emeritus membership will continue to be exempt from per capita tax.

2.8.6.13. Perpetual Membership. Provided similar action is approved by the Grand Chapter of Georgia, Royal Arch Masons and the Grand Commandery of Georgia, Knights Templar, this Grand Council does hereby authorize the creation and the joint operation of a Perpetual Membership Program under the name and style of the York Rite Perpetual Membership Fund of the Grand York Rite Bodies of Georgia. This Fund shall be administered by a joint committee of the said three Grand Bodies which committee shall be known as the Fund Committee.

The Illustrious Grand Master shall appoint one companion for a term of one year, another companion for two years, and another companion for three years who shall serve on the joint Fund Committee. Annually thereafter the incoming Illustrious Grand Master shall appoint one Companion for a three year term. The Grand Recorder and the Grand Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of this Fund Committee. The Fund Committee shall make an annual report to this Grand Council.

The joint Fund Committee shall be responsible for setting up the program of Perpetual Memberships, prescribing rules for determining eligibility costs, transfers, terminations, and other matters; and shall also be responsible for investing the funds received and prescribing the amounts to be paid annually to each Chapter, Council, and Commandery. Provided, however that no funds may be withdrawn from the corpus funds paid to obtain a Perpetual Membership, except under such extreme conditions as may be determined and approved by the Fund Committee and as permitted under the Laws of the State of Georgia for executors and trustees. The Fund Committee may alter, amend, and/or revise its rules and regulations from time to time in order to maintain a sound program.

2.9. JURISDICTION OF CANDIDATES

2.9.1. Petition for Degrees. Any qualified Royal Arch Mason may receive the Cryptic Degrees in any Council within the County in which he has legal residence, or in a Council in any other County which borders the County of legal residence; i.e., all Councils located in a County of this State will enjoy concurrent jurisdiction over candidates with all other Counties which border said County. However, any qualified Royal Arch Mason who resides in a County in which there is no Council and which County is not bordered by a County in which there is a Council, may petition the Council nearest to him in this State.

2.9.2. Violation of Jurisdiction. It is not lawful for a Council to confer the Degrees upon anyone residing within the jurisdiction of another Council, without first obtaining the permission of such Council.

2.9.3. Conferring Degrees by Request. When a Council confers the Degrees at the request of another Council, it does not thereby acquire jurisdiction, and the fees belong to the requesting Council, unless it shall see fit to relinquish them. The Council may confer the Degrees by request only upon a candidate elected by another Council within this Grand Jurisdiction.

2.9.4. Invasion of Territory. If any Council in this jurisdiction shall invade the territory of a sister Council, and make a Select Master of a person residing in such jurisdiction without the consent of such Council, the invading Council shall pay to the Council whose jurisdiction is invaded the fees received on account thereof; and be subject to such discipline as may be just and proper.

2.9.5. Waiver of Jurisdiction. A Council may not waive jurisdiction over one whose petition has been received and referred to Committee.

2.9.6. Residence. A Council may not receive the petition of one who has no residence—no settled home.

2.9.7. Petitioner from Another Jurisdiction. No Council in this Grand Jurisdiction shall receive the petition of a petitioner for the Degrees, who resides in another Grand Jurisdiction, without the consent of the Illustrious Grand Master or the Constituent Council within whose jurisdiction the petitioner resides; nor may a Constituent Council of this Grand Jurisdiction waive the jurisdiction of its members in favor of a Constituent Council of a sister Grand Jurisdiction without the consent of the Illustrious Grand Master.

2.10. CANDIDATES

Without a dispensation, no ballot may be had upon a petition until after it has been referred to a committee of three members of the Council at one Assembly, and that Committee has reported, at a subsequent Assembly. its character (whether favorable or unfavorable) should be entered on the minutes.

2.10.8. Failure to Take Degrees. If an applicant is elected to take the degrees and fails to present himself for initiation within six months thereafter without acceptable excuse to the Council, his election shall be void. If the objection be recorded upon the minutes, it holds for twelve months, unless withdrawn. If made to the Illustrious Master, it holds during his term of office, but may be withdrawn. The Illustrious Master should inquire of the objecting

Companion whether his objection is based upon a violation of the moral law or the laws of the land involving moral turpitude, and if not, it is not valid. The Illustrious Master may, in his discretion, delay the advancement of any candidate without an objection should the circumstances require it.

The Time having arrived for the ceremony, the Most Illustrious Grand Master, or his duly appointed Deputy (WHO MUST BE AN ILLUSTRIOUS OR PAST ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER), assumes the chair, and fills the station with proper officers, opens the Council in the degree of Select Master, and reads the letter of dispensation. He then causes the three principal officers named in the dispensation to assume their stations, and delivers to them and the other officers appropriate charges and instructions. The subordinate officers under dispensation are appointed by the Illustrious Master. Officers of Councils under dispensation are not installed.

The following is the form to be used when officers of a Council under dispensation are assigned to their stations:

CHARGE TO THE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER

COMPANION _____: you have been appointed Illustrious Master. The superintendence and government of the Companions who are to compose this Council while under dispensation having been committed to your care, you cannot be insensible of the obligations which devolve on you as their head; nor of your responsibility for the faithful discharge of the important duties appertaining to your appointment. Conduct the affairs of the Council wisely and well, perpetuate your organization and in due time you will be granted a charter.

CHARGE TO THE DEPUTY MASTER

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Deputy Master of this Council while under dispensation, and will now assume the duties of your station. It will be your duty to aid and support your chief in all the requirements of his office. In his absence you are to preside and perform his duties.

CHARGE TO THE PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Principal Conductor of the Work of this Council while under dispensation, and will now assume the duties of your station. In the absence of both your superior officers, it will be your duty to preside over the Council.

CHARGE TO THE RECORDER

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Recorder of this Council, and are now assigned to your office. Your duties are important, requiring promptness accuracy and fidelity. Let your record and conduct command the approval and merit the confidence of your Companions.

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER

COMPANION _____: Having been appointed Treasurer of this Council, you will enter upon the discharge of your duties. These you will perform with fidelity and care, thus proving your devotion to our Order.

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Captain of the Guard, and you will now assume the duties of your station. Guard well you post, and suffer none to pass it but the select, the faithful and the worthy. Be ever attentive to the commands of your chief, and prompt to see them duly executed.

CHARGE TO THE CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Conductor of the Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. Be fervent and zealous in the discharge of your duties; let justice and mercy mark your conduct, and predominate in your character through life.

CHARGE TO THE STEWARD

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Steward of this Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. You will see that none enter except such as are duly qualified.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL

COMPANION _____: You have been appointed Sentinel of this Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. Be attentive, vigilant and faithful.

(The presiding officer may conclude with such personal instructions and advice as he deems proper, and then he proclaims the Council duly instituted and regularly at work, as follows:)

In the name and by authority of the Most Illustrious Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Georgia, I declare this Council duly instituted under dispensation, and regularly at work, with the officers in their proper stations.

(Handing the Illustrious Master the dispensation and the gavel, he takes his seat beside the Master, and the Council proceeds with its regular business.)

CONSTITUTING A COUNCIL UNDER CHARTER

The Grand Master, or his duly appointed proxy, assumes the chair and fills the various station with suitable Companions who may be present, and opens the Council on the degree of Select Master. He then explains the object of the Assembly and causes to be read the charter under which the new Council is to be constituted. An ode may be sung, or appropriate music rendered. Then the Chaplain shall offer the following, or some other suitable prayer.

Chaplain: Most Holy and Glorious Lord God, the Grand Architect of the Universe, Thou who governs the world in the secrecy and silence of thine omniscient Councils, and who showest mercy unto all who trust in Thy Holy, Ineffable name; we invoke Thy benediction upon the purposes of our present Assembly. May this Council be established to Thy honor, and consecrated to Thy glory; may its officers be endowed with wisdom to discern and fidelity to pursue its true interest, and may its members, remembering that they have been chosen as a select band to preserve for the Craft that Divine Truth which is the foundation stone of all Masonry, be ever mindful of the duty which they owe to Thee, the Eternal Builder, the obedience they owe to their superior, the love they owe to their equals, and the good will they owe to all mankind. Amen.

Response: So mote it be.

The constituting officer then causes the members of the new Council to be formed in line West of the altar, facing the East. He then rises and constitutes the new Council in the following form, all the Companions standing.

Constituting Officer: In the name and by the authority of the Most Illustrious Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Georgia, I do now form and constitute you, my worthy Companions, into a regular Council of Royal and Select Masters by the name of _____ Council No. ____: henceforth you and your successors are authorized and empowered to open and hold said Council, and to do and perform all such things as may appertain thereunto; conforming in all your doings to the Constitution, By-Laws and General Regulations of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Georgia; and may the God of our fathers be with you to guide and direct you in all your doings. Amen.

Response: So mote it be.

The following Dedicatory Declaration shall then be pronounced by the Grand Master.

Grand Master: To our Ancient and Most Illustrious Grand Master, Solomon, King of Israel, we solemnly dedicate this Council; may the blessing of Him who presides in the Grand Council above, descend and rest upon its members, and may He so direct their labors that His name may be magnified, now and forever. Amen.

Response: So mote it be.

These ceremonies may be interspersed with suitable music. The Constituting Officer then causes an election to be held for all the officers of the new Council. He then appoints some suitable Companion to act as Marshal and proceeds to install the newly elected and appointed officers.

An oration may here be delivered or appropriate addresses may be made by the Grand Master and other Companions. The new Council will now proceed with its regular business, and after all business is transacted the Council should be closed in due form.

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF A CHARTERED COUNCIL

At the time appointed for the installation, the Council being opened in the degree of Select Master, the Illustrious Master (or a Past Master acting) will appoint some suitable Companion to act as Marshal.

Installing Officer:  Companion Marshal, present the Illustrious Master-Elect for Installation.

The Marshal will then present the Illustrious Master-Elect to the Installing Officer, saying:

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I here present for installation, Companion _____, who has been duly elected to serve this Council as Illustrious Master for the ensuing year.

Installing Officer: We are taught as Masons before entering upon any great or important undertaking, to invoke the aid of Almighty God. Companion Marshal, conduct the Installing Chaplain to the Altar.

The Chaplain offers prayer. When finished, the Installing Marshal re-conducts the Installing Chaplain to his place.

The Installing Officer then addresses the IM-Elect as follows.

Installing Officer: Companion _____, I feel much satisfaction in installing you into the office of Illustrious Master of this Council. It is a station highly honorable to all those who diligently perform the important duties connected therewith. But, before investing you with the appropriate insignia of your office, I shall propose certain questions, to which I must require your unequivocal answers:

- (1) Do you solemnly promise that you will use your utmost endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals and promote the happiness of your Companions?
- (2) That you will never suffer any person to pass the circle in your Council in whose integrity, fervency and zeal you have not entire confidence?
- (3) That you will not acknowledge or hold intercourse with any Council that does not work under some regular and constitutional authority?
- (4) That you will admit no visitor into your Council who has not been regularly and lawfully invested with the Council degrees?
- (5) That you will faithfully observe the By-Laws of your Council, and the Constitution and General Regulations of the Grand Council?
- (6) That in the government of your Council you will administer justice tempered with mercy?
- (7) That you will pay due respect and obedience to the Grand Officers when duly installed, and sustain them in the discharge of their duties?

Do you submit to all these requirements, and do you promise to observe them faithfully?

Illustrious Master-Elect: I do.

Installing Officer: Your answers are satisfactory; but before proceeding further in your installation, it is necessary that I should administer to you the obligation of office. You will kneel on both knees, both hands resting on the Holy Bible, Square and Compasses. (Done.) You will say I, pronounce your name in full and repeat after me:

Do solemnly promise that I will serve as Illustrious Master of this Council for the term for which I have been elected, and that I will perform all the duties appertaining to that office to the best of my ability, so help me God. (When finished repeating:) Arise.

CHARGE TO THE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER

Installing Officer: Illustrious Master: With entire confidence in the rectitude of your intentions, and in the integrity of your character as a Select Master, you are now invested with the appropriate badge of your office. (Done.)

Having been elevated by the voice of your Companions to the highest station in their gift, you are now to assume the functions of that office. It is your duty to set an example of diligence, industry and fidelity; to see that the officers associated with you faithfully perform their respective duties; and that the interests and reputation of your Council are not endangered by impudence or neglect. The important trust committed to your care will call for your best exertions, and the exercise of your best faculties. As the representative of Solomon, King of Israel, it will be your duty to recite the secret traditions, illustrate the moral principles of our Order, cherish the worthy, and hold in due veneration the ancient landmarks.

By a frequent recurrence to the By-Laws of your Council, and the general regulations of the Fraternity, together with a constant study of the legends and symbols of the Order, as explained in the history and lectures of the several degrees, you will be enabled to fulfill the important obligations resting upon you, with honor to yourself and advantage to the Craft. And may He, without whose approbation all our labors are in vain, give wisdom to your counsels and strength to you exertions. You will now assume your appropriate station. Companion Marshal, conduct the IM to the East.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, behold your companions, companions, behold your Illustrious Master and join me in York Rite Grand Honors, three times three.

Installing Officer: Companion Marshal, present the other officers for installation.

(The remaining officers are then presented in a body by the Marshal, and the Installing Officer administers the following obligation.)

Installing Officer: Each of you will place your right hand over your heart, say I, pronounce your name in full, and repeat after me:

Do solemnly promise that I will faithfully perform all duties of the office to which I have been chosen, to the best of my ability, so help me God.

You may lower your hands. Companion Marshal, present the Deputy Master-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Deputy Master of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE DEPUTY MASTER

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been elected to the second office in this Council, and are invested with the appropriate badge of your office. (Done.)

The duties of the important office to which your Companions have elevated you will require your constant and earnest attention. You are to occupy the second seat in the Council, and it will be your duty to aid and support your Chief in all the requirements in his office. In his absence you are to preside and perform his duties.

Although the representative of a King, and therefore elevated in rank above your Companions, you should never forget that in all the duties which you owe to God, your neighbor, and yourself, you and they stand upon the same level of equality. Let the bright example of your Illustrious predecessor in the Grand Council at Jerusalem stimulate you to the lawful performance of every duty; and when the King of Kings shall summon you into his immediate presence, from His hand may you receive a crown of glory which shall never fade. Companion Marshal, conduct the Deputy Master to his station. (Done.) Companion Marshal, present the Principal Conductor of the Work-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Principal Conductor of the Work of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK

Installing Officer: Companion _____, as the third officer of this Council, and are invested with the appropriate badge of your office. (Done.)

It is your duty to sound the silver trumpet at early dawn and eve of day, when the suns first and last rays gild the mountain tops, to announce high twelve, and proclaim the time of labor and of rest.

In the absence of both your superior officers you will be called upon to preside; and as the interests of the Council should never be permitted to suffer through a want of intelligence in its officers, you will allow me to urge upon you the necessity of being always prepared and qualified to meet such an emergency.

Having been admitted to the fellowship of kings, you will be appropriately reminded that the office of Mediator is one of great responsibility, as well as honor. Let it, therefore, be your constant care to preserve harmony and unanimity of sentiment among the members of your Council. Discountenance whatever may tend to create division and dissension among the Companions; and as the glorious sun, when at its meridian height, dispels the mists and clouds that obscure the horizon, so may your exertions tend to dissipate the mists of jealousy and discord, should they ever unfortunately arise in your Council.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Principal Conductor of the Work to his station. (Done.) Companion Marshal, present the Recorder-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Recorder of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE RECORDER

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been elected Recorder of this Council, and are invested you with the badge of your office. (Done.)

The possession of the requisite qualities has designated you as a suitable Companion for this office; and I do not doubt that you will discharge its duties with fidelity and diligence. And when you shall have completed the record of your probation, may you be admitted into the Grand Council above, and find your name recorded in the Book of Life eternal.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Recorder to his station. (Done.)
Companion Marshal, present the Treasurer-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Treasurer of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been elected Treasurer of this Council, and are invested with the badge of your office. (Done.)

Your interest in this Council, your attachment to the Craft and your known integrity of character are a sufficient guarantee that the duties of your office will be faithfully performed.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Treasurer to his station. (Done.)
Companion Marshal, present the Captain of the Guard-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Captain of the Guard of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD

Installing Officer: Companion _____, having been chosen Captain of the Guard, and are invested with the badge and appropriate implement of your office. (Done.) Guard well your post and suffer none to pass it but the select, the faithful and the worthy.

Be ever attentive to the commands of your chief and prompt to see them duly executed.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Captain of the Guard to his station. (Done.) Companion Marshal, present the Conductor of the Council-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Conductor of the Council of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been chosen Conductor of the Council, and are invested with the badge of your office. (Done.)

Be fervent and zealous in the discharge of your duties; let justice and mercy mark your conduct, and predominate in your character through life.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Conductor of the Council to his station. (Done.) Companion Marshal, present the Chaplain for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been appointed Chaplain of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE CHAPLAIN

Installing Officer: Companion _____, having been chosen Chaplain of this Council, and are invested with the badge of your office. (Done.)

It is your duty to lead the Council in its devotions. As you do so you will give the spiritual inspiration that helps us to do our work well. It is important, therefore, that you be present at all assemblies of this Council and fill your station with reverence and diligence.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Chaplain to his station. (Done.)
Companion Marshal, present the Steward-Elect for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been elected Steward of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE STEWARD

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been chosen Steward of this Council, and are invested with the badge of your office. (Done.)

In the discharge of your duties, your station is near the door, where you will receive all the reports from the Sentinel, and announce the name and Masonic rank of all who desire admission. You will see that none enter except such as are duly qualified.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Steward to his station. (Done.)
Companion Marshal, present the Sentinel for installation.

Marshal: Illustrious Master, I present _____, who has been appointed Sentinel of this Council for the ensuing year.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL

Installing Officer: Companion _____, you have been elected Sentinel of this Council, and are invested with the badge and this implement of your office. (Done.)

As the sword is placed in the hands of the Sentinel to enable him to guard the sanctuary and entrance to the secret passage with sleepless vigilance against intruders, so it should morally serve as a constant admonition to us to set a guard at the entrance of our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions; thereby excluding every unworthy thought, word and deed, and enabling us to preserve consciences void of offense toward God and men.

Companion Marshal, conduct the Sentinel to his station. (Done.)

CHARGE TO THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

Installing Officer: Companions, from the nature of the constitution of every society, some must rule and others obey. And while justice and moderation are required of the officers in the discharge of their official duties, subordination and respect for their rulers are equally demanded of members. The relation is reciprocal. The interests of both are inseparable, and without mutual cooperation, the labors of neither can succeed. Let therefore, brotherly love prevail among you; let each be emulous of the others in all good works, in promoting peace and unity, and in striving to see who can best rule and best obey. Let the avenues to your passions be strictly guarded; let no curious intruder find his way into the secret recesses of your retirement, to disturb the harmony which should ever prevail among the select and chosen. Companion Marshal, you will make the Proclamation.

(The Marshal will then make the following proclamation.)

Marshal: In the name and under the auspices of the Most Illustrious Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Georgia, I do hereby proclaim the officers of _____ Council No. _____ Royal and Select Masters, to be duly installed.

Installing Officer: This concludes the Ceremony of Installation of the Officers of a Chartered Council.
